MEDITATION FOR JULY 31st

If we listen to Jesus and follow his teachings our hearts will be fed and we will come to have eternal life.

The promise of abundance told by the prophet Isaiah was fulfilled by Jesus, as he fed the hungry people. He continues to feed the hunger of our hearts through the Eucharist. The Eucharist Meal we share today brings us closer to Jesus and is a foretaste of the eternal banquet we are to share in heaven. Let us give thanks.

Isaiah proclaims a message of hope. God will renew the Israelites if they turn to him and walk in his ways. In the second reading, we are reminded that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus feeds five thousand men, not counting women and children. He did this with only five loaves and two fish.

Stewardship – A Way of Life

"Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy?" – Isaiah 55:2

Do you waste the financial gifts that God has given you on things that are not necessary or on things that do not give you joy or fulfillment? This is Isaiah's challenge to us this week.

SOMETHING TO PONDER

What does the Bible teach about abortion, a word it does not mention? Two principal life-affirming Biblical teachings hold that (1) human life is different from other types of life because human beings are made in the very image of God; and (2) children are a blessing. Priests for Life newsletter, 2/07.

We pray that an ever growing number of people may listen heedfully to the Biblical teachings about the sanctity of life.

PARISHIONERS BE WARNED

If you park in "Fire Zone" areas on the parish premises, the police on duty have been informed to issue you a ticket. Once the ticket is issued you will be responsible to pay. Also, you must park 50 feet from the stop sign on Oakey Drive, or else you will also be ticketed.

CHANGES IN THE MASS

Beginning First Sunday of Advent
You are hearing today

Beginning the First Sunday of Advent of this year (November 26/27, 2011) the texts of the Mass that we say (and sing) will be changing. These texts are taken from a book called the Roman Missal. This will be the third edition of the Missal after Vatican II. The current translation (the second edition of the Roman Missal after Vatican II) was promulgated by Pope Paul VI in 1969 and approved by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops for use in the United States in 1973. The current translation is not a direct translation from the Latin and in some cases is missing a great deal of the beauty of the original Latin. Today you heard (after communion) the Cantor sing one of the new Mysterium Fidei (Latin for Mystery of Faith-from 1 Timothy 3:9). In the new Roman Missal there are three options to be sung (or said) by the faithful. "When we eat thus Bread and drink this Cup we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again." This is very similar to what we sing (say) now-only three words are different "O Lord" instead of "Lord Jesus Christ" and "come again" instead of "come in glory". This is to preserve the direct Biblical reference: 1 Corinthians 11:26. There are two other options: "We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again." This too is based on 1 Corinthians 11:26. And "Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free." (Taken from John 4:42) "Christ has died", "Dying you destroyed our death", and "Lord by your Cross and Resurrection" will no longer be used. These new texts are "action words", "we proclaim your Death" and "Save us" rather than simple statements of faith. Notice too the focus of the new texts on the sacrifice of Jesus. These new texts will call us all to look deeper into our faith as we pray the mass in a new (yet ancient) way.

MISSION COOPERATIVE PLAN SPECIAL COLLECTION AUGUST 13TH AND 14TH, 2011

On the weekend of August 13th/14th, Fr. Philip Pitya, USA Mission Representative from the Archdiocese of Juba, the Republic of South Sudan will present to us an overview of his work in South Sudan. On July 9, 2011 South Sudan became an independent Nation State. On that day, Sudan separated into two nations: The Republic of South Sudan and the Islamic Republic of the Sudan in the North. Our Church, finding herself on the crossroad between the two countries, must continue to bear witness to Christ's reconciling Gospel of love and mercy. Our Church must be a voice of reason to the contending people of the two nations. A monumental task indeed! On the Evangelical and Pastoral Fronts, we are facing a flood of returning destitute refugees and internally displaced people to whom we must minister and proclaim the Gospel. Our Church must recruit and train many more clerical and lay pastoral agents. We must rebuild our churches, chapels, prayer centers, seminaries, convents, rectories, catechetical training centers, etc.

On the Socio-political Front, the Church is and will continue to play a vital leading role in building peace and advocating for justice, the equitable sharing of resources, good governance, security and the rule of law which must be built on the solid foundation of Christ's Gospel.

On the Socio-economic Front, the Church, in partnership with the government and other religious and social institutions, is providing a leading role in sheltering, feeding, healing and educating the citizens of our new Nation. We are promoting traditional and new economics-farming, small business and supplying clean drinking water to the people. We must rebuild our social institutions-schools, health centers, trade and technical training centers. Most of our facilities were damaged or totally destroyed during the long civil war.

Our people are desperate. They have lost everything, and are unable to help themselves. Many, particularly the most vulnerable children and the elderly, are dying daily from starvation and curable diseases.

We in the church are the hope for our people. Our clergy, religious, catechists and lay leaders are fighting against all odds to keep the flames of faith burning in our country. While burying the dead, supporting the survivors, sheltering the displaced, healing the wounded and broken hearted, feeding the orphans and displaced children, widows and the elderly, we continue to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ vigorously, build the Church and consolidate faith in our country.

We need your help to continue to keep hope alive among our traumatized people. I am therefore appealing to you, our brothers and sisters in faith to help us in our struggle for survival. Thank you in advance for standing in solidarity with us in our time of need. May our Risen Savior Jesus Christ bless you with the fullness of grace, peace and health.

Fraternally,
Fr. Philip Pitya

Please use your Mission Collection Envelope in your offertory box under Special Cooperative Plan for August 14th, 2011, for the second collection.

Thank you!

Our Lady of Fatima Statues for School Classrooms

In honor of the Year of Blessed John Paul II and in gratitude for the protection of the hand of Our Lady of Fatima on May 13, 1981 in the assassination attempt on his life in St. Peter's Square, the following classrooms will be getting new 24 inch statues of Our Lady of Fatima. During the Year of the Rosary, proclaimed by Blessed John Paul II (2002-2003), the following made a donation to place a statue of Mary in these classrooms. A new memorial plaque will be placed in our school once again acknowledging the original donation and now this new statue of Our Lady of Fatima. The new statues were made possible through proceeds from our school cafeteria.
